Medical and Feeding Missions

Establishing a medical mission has been one of CALM's goals for many years. Thanks to a generous offering from Hempfield Church of Christ, that dream is going to become a reality very soon. Plans are being made to begin holding a free monthly health clinic. Health care is unaffordable for most Filipinos. CALM will hold a clinic at one of the churches CALM serves. It will be conducted by doctors, nurses, pastors, and volunteers from the churches. A different church will host the clinic each month. They will offer basic health care, provide medication, and spiritual counseling to anyone in the area. CALM is also planning to begin a weekly feeding program for hungry children at four different churches. They have had feeding programs in the past, but this will reach many more people. We have enough funds for both programs for two months; we are praying for additional contributions to continue in the future.

Youth Camp

CALM sponsored a Youth Camp on July 27-29 at the Bay-ang Church of Christ. The registration cost was 200 Pesos ($3.65) and over 230 youths enjoyed the fellowship, sports, games, praise and worship with a live band, teaching, and preaching. Eight young people committed their life to Jesus and were baptized. One young lady posted the following on Facebook:

I had the best 3 days of my life, I don't know how to explain the happiness I'm feeling right now, but I'm so very blessed with the people I've been with. Thank you Bay-ang church for inviting us and thank you Lord, y'all made my 3 days happy. 🍷🍷🍷
