Visayas Women's Conference

Juanito Magbanua was one of the speakers at the Visayas Women's Conference in Bacolod City, Negros Occidental Province on November 2 – 4. They had a number of men and women speakers and participants; he wasn't the only man there. The theme of the conference was "It's all about you, Jesus."

New Church Launched

A new congregation has been established at Cabatuan in Iloilo Province. A ribbon cutting and worship service was held at the Cabatuan Church of Christ on November 26. The event was attended by the two founding families for the congregation and supporters from other churches. This work is an extension ministry of the Dawis Church of Christ. The pastor at Dawis will preach at Dawis in the morning and at Cabatuan in the afternoon every Sunday.

Juanito's Activities

Juanito preached at the Aglalana Church of Christ on November 4th. Four precious souls came forward and accepted Jesus as their Savior and were baptized after the service. He preached at the Dala Church of Christ on November 12th. He met with church leaders of the PICCEA (Panay Island Church of Christ Evangelizing Association) to plan forthcoming activities on November 18. He spoke at the Guimaras Church of Christ on November 19, helping them celebrate Thanksgiving and their third anniversary. On November 26, he preached at the Taft North Church in the morning and at the new church at Cabatuan in the afternoon. He continues to lead the Iloilo Bible Seminary and teach classes on Mondays.

Aglalana Church of Christ

Pray for

- The new church at Cabatuan
- Juanito, CALM Philippines, and the churches they serve.
- The success of the Iloilo Bible Seminary and the teachers and students.
- That funding will be provided to allow the medical mission to continue monthly. It was not possible to hold a medical mission in November because of insufficient funds.
