Juanito's Travels

Juanito Magbanua was very busy this month with a full and successful speaking schedule. He preached at the Tapaz Church of Christ on June 2. Tapaz is in the mountainous interior of Panay Island. Four young people accepted the Lord and were baptized. He spoke at the Lemery Church of Christ on June 9; three people responded to the invitation and were baptized the next day. He spoke at the Jolog Church of Christ on June 16, helping them celebrate their third anniversary. Balasan Church of Christ celebrated their fifteenth anniversary on June 30 with Juanito as their speaker. Three people responded to accept Jesus as their savior and were baptized.

New Building Project

The Estancia Church of Christ in Kalibo has been able to rent property and is building a place to worship. They have outgrown their current place of worship. Juanito has been helping Pastor Romulo Subong and the members with the construction.

Vacation Bible School

The Hempfield Church of Christ in Greensburg, PA had CALM Philippines as their mission for Vacation Bible School in June. They raised $637.59. for the mission! The money will be used to buy back-to-school supplies for the CALM Philippines churches and two elementary schools in Iloilo City.

Juanito's wife, Nenette, and his sister, Luz, directed a Vacation Bible School at the Taft North Church of Christ.

IBS

The Iloilo Bible Seminary began its current semester on June 24; it will run through October. There are five students and six part-time professors. They study five days a week. Please pray for these upcoming church leaders.

Medical Mission

CALM Philippines conducted a medical mission at the Lemery Church of Christ on June 15 with 22 volunteers serving 122 people. Approximately 35 children were provided a nutritious meal, listened to Bible stories, and participated in singing and prayer.
